

Redwork Embroidery at the McMinn County Living Heritage Museum

Chattanooga Area • February 3

Redwork embroidery has a rich history dating back to the late nineteenth century. It is a simple style of art needlework that consists of embroidering the outline of designs onto a white or off-white background with a contrasting color of thread. Maddi Garvin will be teaching this two hour workshop in partnership with the McMinn County Living Heritage Museum.

Girl Scout girl members should select the “member” option when registering for the event on the Heritage Museum website.

Senior Journey in an Afternoon

Chattanooga • February 7

Come spend the afternoon with fellow Seniors to complete the GIRLtopia journey and work towards earning your Visionary award!

Girl Scout Seniors know the world is not ideal. This journey is their chance to imagine a perfect world for girls. They're invited to create their vision of GIRLtopia in any medium they choose. Then they'll take action to make their vision a reality. Leaders, after all, are visionaries!

Cost is $12, includes Journey patch.
