

Girl Scout Spirit Celebration

You make the world a better place each and every time you act with kindness, serve your community, and share Girl Scouts with others. To you, it's just living the Girl Scout Promise and Law, but your impact on the world around you is much, much bigger than that. That's why we're celebrating all it means to be a Girl Scout through the September Girl Scout Spirit Celebration—we're celebrating you! See page 2 for rules on how to participate.

Choose your own way to spread kindness: Write uplifting messages on the sidewalk with chalk, paint and place kindness rocks, or give someone a homemade card.	Sign up to help at a Girl Scout recruitment event at your school.	Spread the word about your Girl Scout experience by speaking to a group or writing to your local newspaper	Help your friends or family by cooking a meal or doing a chore you don't normally have to do.	Teach someone in your community about recycling AND help start a program at that place OR educate them about ways to reduce and reuse.
Attend an activity that is listed in the GSCSA Activities List & Calendar .	Make and deliver thank-you fliers to businesses or organizations that have hosted your troop for an event or donated products for a project	Help a younger Girl Scout earn a badge OR volunteer at a service unit or council event.	Donate your old clothes/toys/books, etc.	Design a piece of art or writing that's all about Girl Scouts.
Pick up trash while on a hike or playing outside.	Share your favorite Girl Scout memory with us HERE .	FREE SPACE for Bronze, Silver, and Gold Award Girl Scouts OR completing another take action project	Make a plan to plant, honor, or protect a tree as part of the Girl Scout Tree Promise.	Invite others to play with you at school, church, etc.
Invite a friends to become a Girl Scout sister and join a troop meeting.	Visit a place in your community and brainstorm ideas of ways that you or your troop could improve it.	Learn or review basic first aid in case of emergency.	Wear as much green as you can. Green shoes ✓ Green shirt ✓ Green hair clips ✓ Green hearts ✓ All! Green! Everything!	Create a Girl Scout "to do" list for the year including goals, badges, and activities you'd like to complete.
Learn a new skill: knot tying, fire building, pitching a tent, using a compass, preparing for a hike, flag ceremony, etc...	List 3 things that make you grateful for your troop leader, then share your list with them.	Make the world a better place by holding a door open, giving a compliment, or lending someone a hand.	Volunteer in your community by visiting or sending cards to a senior center, donating to or organizing a food drive, or helping an animal shelter.	Participate in a GSUSA National Service Project .

GSCSA Girl Scout Spirit Celebration

How to play:

- Open to Girl Scouts of all levels, the goal is to complete activities on the Girl Scout Spirit Activity Card (page 1) in ways that are right for your age and ability. Grown-ups can help as needed!
- As you complete the activities, color in the boxes with your favorite shade of green.
- Activities should be completed by September 30.
- If you finish early, you may email before the deadline!
- All cards must be emailed to info@girlscoutcsa.org by Sunday, October 2 at 11:59 PM.
- Remember the purpose of this is FUN!

Two chances to win:

1. When you complete five activities that are in a row (horizontally, vertically, or diagonally), submit your card to enter. The first 100 submissions will receive a patch.
2. Complete EVERY activity for a “green-out”! All “green-out” cards will be entered for the chance to win a prize pack.
